

Competition News

Competitions are the highlight of Golden Gate Stereoscopic Society meetings. Thanks to the efforts of member Jay Kusnetz, our stereo photography competitions will continue unabated as Mat Bergman steps down from running the competitions (Mat's not going anywhere, but will be occupied for a few semesters).

The competitive nature of our meetings sets the Golden Gate Stereoscopic Society apart from other 3-D clubs. No other group produces the volume of original, inspired stereo photography each month as we do. Our competitions will continue to inspire, motivate, and bring us together.

June's Special "Protest" Competition

Tens of thousands of people in all fifty states are peacefully protesting systematic injustice in response to the brutal arrest, abuse, and death of George Floyd. This profound moment in U.S. history must be recognized.

Our special competition on June 22 shared our sense of current events in stereo. Since this is an unsettled moment, the rules were open to interpretation.

The "Protest" competition drew tremendous participation from GGSS members. The results of our scores are featured in this Panoram issue.

About the Golden Gate Stereoscopic Society

Stereo photography — 3-D photography — is the marvelous craft of making pictures with the illusion of depth.

The Golden Gate Stereoscopic Society is the San Francisco / Bay Area's club for stereo photography enthusiasts. Join us at a monthly meeting to learn about the art of stereo photography and experience fantastic stereo slideshows.

The Golden Gate Stereoscopic Society was founded in 1934, and endures today as a dedicated group of stereo photography hobbyists. We are a member of the Photographic Society of America, and are recognized as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. Our mission is to encourage and promote the art of stereo photography through the support of our community and outreach to the public.
